

Tom Komen

Nationality: Dutch

After a long career with Philips Healthcare, Tom has been employed with MeduProf-S since November 2006 as an International Project Manager. His primary responsibilities include Financial Administration, Planning & Control.

In his previous career with Philips Healthcare, Tom held the function of Senior Director Operations in an organizational unit accountable for the sales, service and business results of Central & Eastern Europe, Middle East, Africa, part of Western Europe and operational services to Philips Healthcare in Asia Pacific and Latin America.

Tom has extensive international experience in Marketing and Sales related business functions in the Medical Imaging market such as supply chain management, project management, logistics, purchasing, business development / planning and human resource / change management.

Tom has also led a team of International Project Managers to prepare and execute international healthcare projects and Dutch aid healthcare rehabilitation projects, mainly in Africa, Middle East and Asia. Since many of these projects had a training component Tom has a working relation with MeduProf-S for more than 15 years.

Education: College des Sciences Sociales et Economiques (CSSE), Paris, France.
Diploma in Business Administration and Economiques.